£20 UC CUT HAMMERS FAMILIES & ECONOMY

Hanna hits out as slash in benefits starts to hit home

BY JAMES MCCARTHY

THE Tory cut to Universal Credit which went live this week will have a “catastrophic effect” on families and the economy, South Belfast MP Claire Hanna has said.

Ms Hanna said South Belfast would be particularly hard-hit by the £20 weekly benefit cut as it recorded the highest rise in Universal Credit claimants during the Covid pandemic.

Planning Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 and The Planning (Development Management) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015 (Regulation 5 (2)(b))The Planning (Development Management) (Temporary Modifications) (Coronavirus) Regulations (NI) 2020

Belfast City Council are in the process of developing plans for a shared space facility on the site of the former Finlay's Factory, Belfast BT13 3QZ. It will include a range of integrated services and facilities including indoor leisure, community space, capacity support, health and wellbeing, educational links and multipurpose spaces.

Proposal: Provision of a two storey shared space centre comprising main hall, changing and toilet facilities, kitchens (ground and first floor), multi-function rooms, multi-function office, meeting rooms, storage and plant rooms, foyer and circulation space. Car and cycle parking areas, a service yard, perimeter fencing, associated external lighting and proposed landscaping. Proposed vehicular and pedestrian accesses from Springfield Heights and Ballygomartin Road and all associated site works.

Location of proposed development: At the site of the former Finlay's Factory southeast of Ballygomartin Road, north of Moyard Crescent, northwest of Springfield Heights and Springfield Park, Belfast BT13 3QZ.
