'I'LL TAKE DUP BACK TO COURT'

South Belfast businessman vows to follow up on his significant legal victory over North-South bodies boycott

BY JAMES MCCARTHY

A SOUTH Belfast businessman who has succeeded in having the DUP's boycott of North-South bodies declared

"unlawful" says he'll go back to court if the leading unionist party doesn't start attending meetings.

Seán Napier says the instability sparked by the

DUP's sabotaging of North-South co-operation is a danger to the business he has built up over two decades.

And he added he's currently working with a number of companies who are keen to create a base here because of the economic opportunities created by the Northern Ireland Protocol.

Age NI is delighted to invite applications for the following permanent part-time vacancies in the North & West and South & East areas of Belfast.

Dementia Community Support Workers

Salary: £9.77

Hours of Work: 20-30 hours per week (various hours available)

The main purpose of the Dementia Community Support Worker role is to deliver person centred support to people living with dementia and related conditions in accordance with agreed health and wellbeing plans, and through this improve their wellbeing and that of carers.

For an applicant pack, please e-mail recruitment@ageni.org, apply on-line at www.ageni.org or telephone the People & Development team on 028 9024 5729.

Closing date for completed applications is Thursday 28 October 2021 at 12 noon.

Age NI is committed to recruiting fairly. An application form enables us to assess applicants consistently against the criteria for the role and for that reason we cannot accept CVs.

Age NI is committed to providing equal opportunities to everyone.
