Queen's unveil ultra-modern 'One Elmwood' as new term gets under way

BY GRÁINNE NÍ GHRÉACHÁIN

THE new term at Queen's University has started with a bang with the opening of the ultra-modern new £42 million Students' Union.

'One Elmwood' will provide a wide range of pastoral, educational, social and career services to over 24,000 students.

Queen's Vice Chancellor Professor Ian Greer and Students' Union President Gemma Murphy joined forces at the unveiling of the striking new building, which they hailed as an exciting new era not only for Queen's students and staff, but for the wider community in the city and beyond.
