HOLYLAND: NEW TERM SAME OLD PROBLEMS

BY JAMES MCCARTHY

IT was the same old story this week for Holyland residents as the return of the new term brought an upsurge in crime and anti-social behaviour.

A local resident tells us of her disappointment to see work done in the community over the summer set back by the increase in disorder. And a local councillor says plants have been ripped out of their pots and residents forced to leave their homes in the early hours due to high noise levels.
