

WHERE'S THE FIRE?

A curious and appreciative public looked on as firefighters from the Northern Ireland Fire and Rescue Service did water training on the River Lagan this week

BOTANIC THROWN OPEN

District planning for the future as it banishes vehicles for family-friendly festival

BY JAMES MCCARTHY

THE bustling Botanic area of South Belfast was closed to vehicles and thrown open to families at the weekend for an event which locals hope will lead to permanent pedestrianisation of the district in the future.

A warm community spirit enveloped the busy commercial area and music and dancing performances took place where normally cars, lorries and buses clog up the key thoroughfare.

Four local community groups are working with a range of statutory agencies in a project aimed at making Botanic a more welcoming place for people.
