MCDONALD'S PLAN DITCHED

New restaurant in car park of Tesco Newtownbreda will not now be going ahead

BY MAGHNUS DUNNE

THE Alliance Party in South Belfast have spoken of their “delight” after their campaign to halt a new McDonald’s in the Newtownbreda area paid off.

A plan to build the fast food outlet in the car park of the Tesco Extra has been withdrawn after a number of Alliance reps forwarded widespread concern about the plan among Newtownbreda residents.

“I am delighted that McDonald’s has listened to the valid objections of the local community and withdrawn this application,” said Councillor Michelle Guy after hearing the news.
