'AS YOU WERE' ELECTION

Main parties hold their own in South Belfast as Sinn Féin wins big elsewhere

BY CONOR MCPARLAND
c.mcparland@belfastmedia.com

IT'S a case of 'as you were' in South Belfast following last week's Belfast City Council election which saw Sinn Féin make sweeping gains at City Hall. The DUP did lose out in Balmoral where Geraldine McAteer topped the poll for Sinn Féin, but elsewhere party make-up in the South of the city was much the same as in 2019.

With all eyes on next week's first Council meeting with the new intake of councillors, all eyes will be on who will be the new Lord Mayor of the city. See our election coverage for South Belfast on page 2-4 inside.
