HANNA PICKED TO RUN AGAIN

South Belfast MP selected by SDLP as candidate in reconfigured constituency

BY CONOR MCPARLAND

THE SDLP has – as expected – selected sitting South Belfast MP Claire Hanna to run again in the general election due to take place later this year. Ms Hanna took the seat in 2019 and has become one of the party’s most trusted and high-profile figures, winning admiration in particular for her stance on the controversial Brexit issue. “It has been my privilege to represent our shared community,” she said. Full story, page 3
