FINUCANES WELCOME INQUIRY

35 years on, family of murdered human rights lawyer win their biggest battle

BY CONOR MCPARLAND

THE widow of murdered human rights solicitor Pat

Finucane says she's looking forward to taking part in a public inquiry into his shooting.

Secretary of State Hilary Benn yesterday ordered an independent public inquiry be held into the 1989 killing, carried out by a state-controlled loyalist killer gang. "I look forward to having the opportunity to participate in a statutory inquiry and expose publicly the whole truth behind the murder of my husband," said Geraldine Finucane, speaking at a press conference held after the Commons announcement.
