VILLAGE HOUSING JOY

BY CONOR MCPARLAND

PLANS for a new 54-home housing development in the Village area were unveiled this week.

Belfast Lord Mayor Tracy Kelly and Stormont Speaker and South Belfast MLA Edwin Poots were in attendance as Clanmil Housing released their vision for a listed former mill in Rydalmere Street in the heart of the historic South Belfast district.

Lord Mayor Kelly said: "Visiting the Rydalmere Street site, where the new Clanmil social housing will be, means a lot personally as, away from my role as Lord Mayor, I had worked on seeing this turned around from providing private to 100 per cent social housing." Carol McTaggart, Clanmil Group Chief Executive, said: "We believe that everyone deserves to live in a comfortable, high-quality home. Our plans to transform this former factory into new apartments means we can go some way toward reducing the high waiting lists for social housing in Belfast."
